Stewardship Message:
Time, Talent & Treasure

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom

November 14, 2005

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As those who have worked closely with me in my role as Director of Christian Formation for this parish know, I have been discerning God's call in a new direction over the past several months. While in the gulf ministering to the victims of hurricane Katrina and since my return, it has become clear to me that He is leading my ministry in a new direction. Therefore, I am tendering my resignation as Director of Christian Formation for the Church of St. Jude effective December 31, 2005.

I want all of you to know that I have grown not only as a minister in the church during my time here with you but as an individual as well. I have experienced a deeper conversion of heart as a result of my time at the Church of St. Jude. My life has been forever enriched and I know the blessings will continue to unfold as I move forward.

When Fr. Bill hired me, he told me good ministry was never to be developed dependent upon the minister. I have done my best to follow his instructions by the role model he has provided for me. My prayer for all of the good people of the Church of St. Jude is one of peace and prosperity. May all come to know the peace of Christ, which surpasses human understanding and may God let His face shine upon you always!

In Christ's peace,

Laura A. Megown

Please patronize our bulletin sponsors and thank them for their support.

Thank you to Jerry and Nancy Calvert and all who so graciously gave of their time and talents to help with last weekend's Harvest Feast. It would not be possible without those persons who shop for the necessary items, set up and decorate, cook the fantastic meal, provide the entertainment, wash dishes and take down the tables and chairs afterward.

If you forgot to pick up your Twist orders call Sue Bozarth at the parish office at 498-9524 to make arrangements. The twists can be kept in the freezer at the parish center for a few days.

It is not too late to turn in you ministry sign-up form. There are many wonderful opportunities still available for you to share your talents and time with the parish. If you have misplaced your form, extras are found on the table at the entrance to the church.

Attention Young Adult Catholics Ages 19-35!

Join us at Theology-on-tap the first Thursday of each month to learn more about your faith. Each session will include a speaker who will challenge you to explore your faith, a question and answer period, and time to socialize with other Catholics your age.

The first session will be on Thursday, December 1st at 7:00pm at O'Charley's (4241 Conestoga Drive, Springfield). The topic of the evening will be the role of young adults in the Catholic Church presented by Fr. Mike Haag. Contact Molly Bruening for further information at 217-257-3240 or theologyontap@gmail.com.
